

Taos Farmers' Market – Non-Farmer Vendor Commitment

Mission: The Mission of the Taos Farmers' Market is to support, promote and expand local agriculture by providing a premier market for local farmers to sell meat, eggs, dairy, produce, and plants.

Purpose: This Non-Farmer Vendor Agreement will be implemented and enforced by the Taos Farmers' Market (TFM) Board of Directors and Market Staff to require Non-Farmer Vendors to vend products that uphold our organization's mission.

This agreement between Taos Farmers Market Inc., an association of local food vendors and _____ (your business name), an approved non-farmer vendor (herein referred to as "VENDOR").

This agreement allows the above-mentioned VENDOR to participate in the Taos Farmers' Market as a Non-Farmer Vendor.

VENDOR is bound by this agreement to follow all guidelines, as set forth by federal and state authorities and Taos Farmers' Market.

The Taos Farmers' Market reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate VENDOR from vending at the market if Taos Farmers' Market observes, or receives evidence of, failure to abide by any of the agreements below.

VENDOR Agreements:

- VENDOR agrees to uphold the mission of the Taos Farmers' Market
- VENDOR agrees to only sell products approved by the Taos Farmers' Market Board
- VENDOR agrees to source available ingredients from farmer vendors at the Taos Farmers' Market first before sourcing elsewhere
- VENDOR agrees to submit to random receipt verification of proof of locally acquired ingredients by the Taos Farmers' Market Board
- VENDOR agrees that if VENDOR can not produce a product using local ingredients they will no longer sell that product knowing that it does not uphold the mission of the Taos Farmers' Market
- VENDOR agrees that the probability of acceptance to vend next season is determined by how well VENDOR upholds the mission of the Taos Farmers' Market this season
